SUPPLEMENTAL DATA.

0045. While the development of the genealogy of Francis (1) Bushnell, who came from Horsham, Sussex county, England, to Guilford, Connecticut in 1639, has been the main purpose of this investigation, data has been received which we have not been able to allocate, some of which pertains to the foregoing lines, while some apparently belongs in the lines of other emigrants to America, whose connections to the chart of Francis (1) Bushnell have not been determined, or to certain families who adopted the Bushnell name in preference to their own. In addition we have numerous items of miscellaneous data, which pertain solely to the English branches of our family name; this data may eventually be of assistance in the development of a genealogy of those branches and some perhaps will aid in the discovery of a common origin of all these branches.

All of the data is here presented for preservation, and while we have endeavored to classify it under three heads, viz:

- (A) American Data, relevant to the chart of Francis (1),
- (B) Miscellaneous American Bushnell Families,
- (C) Miscellaneous Data of Bushnell Families of England,

it should not be assumed that this classification is correct in all instances, particularly as between (A) and (B).

Appendix A.

0046. Of the 78 Bushnell Families reported in the Printed United States Census for 1790, only 2 have not as yet been identified, namely:

Ann, of North Carolina,
Samuel, of Northeast, New York.

While we have no clue as to the identity of Ann, there is some ground for the belief that Samuel, of Northeast, N.Y. may have been the eldest son of Samuel (195) and Zerviah (Lyman) Bushnell of Lebanon, Connecticut, and the following line is here presented for further study, with the reservation that the allocations are theoretical, and not founded on documentary evidence.

0047. Samuel, b. Lebanon, Conn. 7 Aug. 1744, may have been that Samuel reported in the 1790 Census as residing in the Town of Northeast, Dutchess county, N.Y. with a family of 1 Male over 16 years of age, 2 Males under 16, and 2 Females, or husband and wife with two sons and a daughter. (This town was in the northeast corner of Dutchess county, and included a narrow strip which separated Columbia county from the State of Connecticut, and the present towns of Millerton, Shekomoko, and Sharon Station.) (see 413 and 195).

We know of no record of this Samuel later than the date of his baptism in Lebanon, Conn. 2 Sept. 1744, but it may be significant that a possible brother, Elijah (414), was at the nearby town of Sharon, Conn. 11 Mar. 1773, when he sold land in Lebanon, Conn. to his brother, Aaron (415), and in 1780, with his wife, Eunice Pratt, joined the church in the nearby town of Stockbridge, Mass. where they remained for some 15 years more or less, for on 28 June 1795, Eunice is recorded as removing her church membership probably to Green county, New York, where they finally settled.

Children, 3, may have been:

0048*. i. Samuel.
0049*. ii. a daughter, name unknown.
0050*. iii. Jabez.

*0048. Samuel, b. perhaps abt. 1775, m. perhaps, abt. 1809, Helen (), who may have married 2nd, a Mr. Mulford, and had a son, David Mulford, and later married 3rd husband, name unknown. (These assumptions are derived from a cemetery record of their dau. Mary, buried at Sharon, Conn. and from data submitted by a dau-in-law of William (0053), a possible son.

Children, 2, may have been:

0051. i. Mary, b. 12 Jan. 1811, d. 27 Mar. 1841, ae. 80 years, 2 months, 15 days, unkm. Buried Sharon, Conn.
0052. ii. William, b. 21 Dec. 1814, d. Brooklin, N.Y. 28 Mar. 1885, m. Poughkeepsie, N.Y. 7 Oct. 1841, Helene Garrison Caswell, b. Hyde Park, N.Y. 7 Oct. 1820, d. Bayonne, N.J. at home of a dau. 23 Sept. 1902, dau. of John and Clarice (Van Vliet) Caswell of Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and gr-dau. of Cornelius and Helena Garrison Van Vliet. Both were interred in Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery in the Theodore D. Caswell Plot. Theodore Dwight (0062) a son, could not give the names of his father's parents, but thought that the mother's name was Mary, and that she m. 2nd, a Mr. Mulford, etc. He also thought that his father was born in Upper New York state (perhaps Herkimer county) and that he was an only child, although there may have been a sister. There was also the belief that Alvah and Orsamus Bushnell were relatives, perhaps uncles, but this does not seem possible as there is no record of a William Bushnell in Stanfordville, N.Y. the home of Alvah, and while it is true that Henry, brother of Alvah and Orsamus, may have married twice, and had a son by the first wife, and the daughter by the second, diligent search has not produced the slightest evidence nor have the oldest members of these lines any knowledge of any rumors relative to this subject. A grandson, thought that he remembered that William was born in Columbia county, and this seems to offer a slight verification for our belief. At the time of his marriage he was of Hopewell, but later resided in Poughkeepsie, at 57 Market St. He built and operated iron furnaces at Hopewell and Poughkeepsie, the latter plant of 10000 tons yearly capacity, being operated 17 July 1845, but late in 1850 he removed to Brooklyn, N.Y. where he carried on the business of an Iron Broker. He d. Brooklyn, at 178 Herkimer St. aged 70, and was buried in Poughkeepsie.

Children, 7:

0057. i. John Caswell, b. abt. 1842, d. before 1900, m. Jennie Murdock, who resided in Orange, N.J. 1909. Children, 4: 0066. i. Lillian; 0067. ii. *0049. A daughter (name unknown), b. abt. 1777, may have m. 1st, () Bagley, perhaps m. 2nd, Jeremiah Murray. While there is not positive evidence to warrant the allocation of the following data here there is a possibility that these assumptions are true, for while an allocation to any of the other known lines resident in Columbia and Dutchess counties, N.Y. Berkshire county Mass. and Litchfield county, Conn. does not seem to be indicated by any known data, the paucity of data relating to the family lines of Samuel Bushnell suggest that the assumptions may be true.

Children, 2, possible, perhaps others:

0049. i. James Bagley. Mrs. Fred Bartlett of Spencertown, N.Y. states that he was a half-brother to her grandfather, Bushnell Murray, and that he was of Boston (Which may have been New Boston, Mass. or Boston Corner, Columbia county, N.Y.). The following data may have reference to this line, taken from Records at Pittsfield, Mass. of the Rev. Gideon Bosworth, Pastor of St. James Episcopal Church at Great Barrington, Mass. who was a circuit rider between Manchester, Vt. on the north, New Milford, Conn. on the south, and Catskill, N.Y. on the west, between 17 June 1770 and 27 May 1793:

Bagley, Rhoda, bapt. 26 Aug. 1770 of John and Prudence.
Benjamin, bapt. 27 Aug. 1770 of John & Prudence.
Hannah, bapt 27 Aug. 1770, of John & Prudence.
David, bapt. 8 Dec. 1771, of Abigail Bagley.
Elias, bapt. 23 June 1771, of James and Sarah.
Bethia, bapt. 22 Aug. 1773 of James and Sarah.

all of Nobletown (now Hillsdale), N.Y.

0049. ii. Bushnell Murray, b. Aug. 1812, d. Spencertown, N.Y. 10 June 1871, m. Spencertown, between 1837 and 1843, Harriet Phelps, b. 4 Oct. 1817, dau. of Peleg and Cynthia (Case) Phelps, perhaps of Alford, Mass. who also had son, David, who m. Hannah Munson, (Phelps Genealogy). Mrs. Fred Bartlett, his grand-dau. advises that he was a blacksmith and that he first settled in Austerlitz where he made charcoal, but that about 1849, removed to Spencertown where he continued to live until his death. Land Records at Hudson, N.Y. show that he first purchased land on 21 Oct. 1837, followed by numerous other transactions, the last purchase being made on 27 Jan. 1848. On 28 Jan. 1848, and 21 Jan. 1850, he seems to have disposed of most of his land holdings. On 29 Apr. 1843, he and his wife are mentioned, together with other Phelps heirs in a deed for land in Alford, Mass. and on 7 June 1858, Major M. Tyler, Jared Winslow, David L. Westover, Bushnell Murray, Wright H. Barnes, Rachel M. Allen, John Q. Silvernail, Stephen A. (or W.) Almstead (or Olmstead), all of Austerlitz, Edward Champion and John E. Taylor of Hillsdale, and John Milligan of Alford, Mass. release all claims as creditors of the estate of Francis Eastland, dec'd to Harvey Husted of Poundridge, Westchester county, N.Y. The 1850 Census of Austerlitz does not give his birthplace.

Children, 4:

0049. i. Martha G. Murray, b. 18 May 1840, d. 28/29 Sept. 1916, m. Ezra Lacy, son of Elisha and Electa Lacy. Children, 4: i. Harriet Electa Lacy (FR), b. 19 Dec. 1860, m. Fred Bartlett, resided Spencertown, N.Y.; ii. Eugene Lacy, d. 16 Feb. 1870;

iii. Eugenia Lacy, b. 21 Feb. 1868, living 1943; iv. Forest Lacy, d. 10 Jan. 1942.

0049. ii. Henry Clay Murray, b. abt. 1842, d. June 1921, m. Sylvia Banta, b. abt. 1843, d. abt. 1901. Children, 3: i. Henry Murray; ii. Hubert Murray; iii. Lucinda Murray, m. William Schaeffer, children, 1: i. William Schaeffer, b. abt. 1915.

0049. iii. Horatio Murray, m. Emma Jacobie of Orange, N.J. Children, 2: i. Ada Murray, m. Ross Timson; ii. Flora Murray, m. Henry Kilburn, children, 1: i. Millville Kilburn, a physician of West Orange, N.J.

0049. iv. John Henry Murray, b. Spencertown, N.Y. Feb. 1849, d. Chatham, N.Y. 7 Dec. 1935, ae. 86, m. Laura Keene Blunt. At the age of 14 he removed to Chatham, N.Y. where he continued to reside until his death. He retired from active business 1929, terminating a period of some forty years or more in which he had held the office of Street Commissioner. Children, 1: i. May Murray, m. Ernest Wilder, resided Chatham, N.Y. 1943. Children, 3: i. Marshall Wilder; ii. Kenneth Wilder (both members of the Air Forces, U.S. Army, stationed in California; iii. Luretta May Wilder, b. abt. 1922, m. Roy Miller of Hudson, N.Y.

*0050. Jabez, b. abt. 1779, m. Asenath (), who it is said, was buried in Riverside Cemetery, Coxsackie, N.Y. but no record or headstone has been found. (The inclusion of Jabez in this family group is entirely theoretical, as is also the list of assigned children). On 27 Mar. 1797, he was appointed Q.M. of the N.Y. State Militia from Albany county (perhaps Troy). It is believed that he removed to Green county (perhaps Coxsackie), as on 3 Mar. 1806, he was appointed a Lieutenant, then on 30 Mar. 1809 a Captain, and on 1 Feb. 1811, a Resident Captain, all from Green county.

Children, 4, may have been:

0053. i. Samuel, who was a peddler 1840-1860, and a junk dealer 1862-3 by the Troy, N.Y. City Directories.

0054. ii. Sarah Ann, who m. Seth Van Bergen, by Coxsackie records. (The Van Bergens are said to have been among the original settlers of Coxsackie).

0055. iii. Daniel P. (Reverend), b. near Albany, N.Y. Aug. 1810, d. Detroit, Mich. 4 May 1862, m. Hannah H. (), who resided Detroit, 1893. At the age of 17 he entered the employ of the American Furniture Co. who sent him to Mackinaw, in the then Territory of Michigan, later to Green Bay, and Fort Winnebago. On 1 Nov. 1836, he was appointed Indian Agent at La Pointe, Mich. which position he held to 1842. During this time he witnessed a treaty with the Chippewa Indian Tribes. About 1843, he removed to Detroit, Mich. where he resided the remainder of his life. He was Sergeant at Arms during the Constitutional Convention of 1850, Clerk of the House of Representatives 1851-2, and Representative from Wayne county, Mich. 1859-60, and at the time of his death, was serving his second term as Detroit City Treasurer. He had been Collector of the Port under Hon. John H. Harmon. The beneficiaries under his will, filed 20 May 1862, were his widow, Hannah H. Bushnell, and her heirs. There were probably no children.

0056. iv. Isaac, who is listed as a painter in the 1849 Troy City Directory, but does not seem to have been listed in earlier or later directories.

Children, 2, may have been:

0064. i. Thomas, who is said to have been a wealthy merchant of New York, N.Y. and to have been a bachelor.

0065. ii. John Augustus, b. Troy, N.Y. 2 Aug. 1832, d. Pennfield, N.Y. 28 Sept. 1882, m. 1st, Annie Marie Stockum, who d. abt. 1902. They are said to have separated shortly after the birth of a daughter, may have m. 2nd, Anna Mary Brown, b. abt. 1849, d. 2 Jan. 1909, ae. 59, dau. of John and Mary Brown (two distinct persons may be indicated here, one John Augustus, who m. Annie Marie Stockum, served in the Civil War, and had a dau. Della Elizabeth; while the other is of record in St. Joseph Catholic Church, as John, who m. Anna Mary Brown, and had son Spencer Richard or Richard Spencer, and perhaps another son David.) John Augustus, b. Troy, N.Y. by War Record, enlisted 26 N.Y. Inf. at Rochester, 10 Dec. 1861, ae. 29, in Co. H, and was Honorably Discharged at Utica, N.Y. 24 May 1863, re-enlisted at Rochester 25 Jan. 1864 as private, Co. K, 4th N.Y. Heavy Artillery, and is listed as deserting after furlough 16 Mar. 1865. His term of service ended 1 May 1865. His enlisted record shows that he was aged 30, 5' 2½" tall, fair complexion, gray eyes, brown hair, occupation cooper, his wife's name is given as Anna M. Bushnell in letters seeking to have the charge of desertion annulled. His father's name was given as Acy by William Henry Rice, as told him by his mother, and because he was born in Troy, and because the name Isaac would be very similar in sound, we assume that the name was misunderstood. He is said to have had a brother Thomas as given. Nothing is known of John Bushnell, as distinguished from John Augustus, other than he m. Anna Mary Brown, and had son Spencer Richard or Richard Spencer, the name is reported both ways. Children, 3: i. 0072. i. Della Elizabeth, b. Penfield, N.Y. 10 Mar. 1855, living 1935, m. 26 Jan. 1873, John Maxwell Rice, b. Watertown, N.Y. 18 Jan. 1846, d. June 1900, son of William and Mary Allen Rice. It is stated that he was the first man to cross the Brooklyn Bridge, and that he was a balloonist and bell-diver, and that he recovered the victims of the General Slocum marine disaster, and recovered the body of Diver Hoar from the Boontown Reservoir, children, 2: i. William Henry Rice (FR), b. 27 June 1873, m. 1st, 29 Dec. 1900, Annie Moore, div'd, m. 2nd, 15 May 1909, Elizabeth Dix, he was a glass blower by trade, children, 4: i. Bernice Olive Rice, b. 27 Feb. 1911; ii. Wanetta Blanch Rice, b. 1913; iii. Delia May Rice, b. 27 June 1915; iv. Elizabeth Blanch Rice, b. 1927; 0073. ii. Spencer Richard (sic), b. 8 Feb. 1870, d. Penfield, N.Y. 16 July 1906, ae. 36, m. 30 Jan. 1899, St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Penfield, Gertrude Schnitzer, who d. Rochester, N.Y. 8 Oct. 1924, dau. of Joseph and Catherine Schneider Schnitzer. She m. 2nd, William Kellaher. He was a Deacon in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, and was killed by an accident in the Lawless Paper Mills where he had been employed for 22 years. Children, 3: 0076. i. Mathilda Catherine, b. abt. 1900; 0077. ii. Edna Anna (FR), b. 2 July 1904; 0074. iii. David, said to have resided somewhere in the West.

Before Idaho became a state he held several official positions and was President of the Territorial Legislature during its tenth session. On 3 July 1890, Idaho became a state and on 20 Aug. of that year he was nominated for Lieut. Governor by the first Republican Convention, being later elected to that office. On 19 Dec. 1890 he became the second Governor of the state, succeeding Gov. George L. Shroup, who had resigned to enter the United States Senate. This office he held until 1 Jan. 1893, after which he removed to Blue Canyon, Calif. to become a mine superintendent, and some time later went to Topeka, Kans. where he died. He is supposed to have had a brother who lived in the Salmon River country. The most important features of his administration as Governor included the mine riots in Shoshone county in 1892, when martial law was declared, and the first protracted struggle occurred between the miners and the State and Federal authorities.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN BUSHNELL of Headington, England.

An independent branch of the Bushnells came to America from Headington, England, a suburb of Oxford, about 1850, and crossing the plains, settled in Utah, where a large number of their descendants still reside. This branch may have been connected to one of the Berkshire county family lines, but the connection has not yet been found. We are indebted to Mr. LaVerre V. Adams (0170), a descendant of this branch, for the following data. All localities mentioned are in Utah unless otherwise mentioned.

0157*. John Bushnell, of Headington, Oxford, England, m. Elizabeth Collins, and is said to have had seven children, of whom there was a son, John, who emigrated to America, and a daughter, who is said to have m. a man named Franklin, and perhaps continued to reside in Headington.

Children, 2, probably others:

- 0158*. i. John, b. 19 Apr. 1823.

(Isaac Brockbank was b. in Underbarrow, Westmoreland county, England 17 May 1805, d. 1878. Elizabeth Mainwaring Brockbank was b. in Liverpool, England 1812, and while crossing the plains is said to have wandered away from the party somewhere between Laramie, Wyo. and Salt Lake City, and no trace was ever found as to what became of her. It was believed that she had been captured by a roving band of Indians.)

Children, 8:

0296. London:

Josiah Bushnell of Musgrave and Bushnell, Stationers, stated in 1909, that his father had a brother, William, who came to America some 70 years before and was never heard from thereafter. Josiah had two daughters in America; one m. a Dr. Nightingale of Chicago University, and they were at the Doctor's home at Lake Geneva (Wis). 1701. John Bushnell, sculptor, d. 1701, pupil of Thomas Burman, who having ill treated his servant girl, forced Bushnell to marry her, after which he spent two years in France, then went to Rome and Venice, where he completed several works, among which was a monument representing the Siege of Gandia and a naval engagement between the Venetians and the Turks. Returning home, he completed for the Royal Exchange, statues of Charles I and Charles II, and Sir Thomas Gresham. His best works are said to have been The Kings, which formerly adorned Temple Bar. Among other works was a nude statue of Alexander, which was a failure, a large stucco replica of the Trojan Horse, which was destroyed by a wind storm, and a scheme for bringing coals to London in vessels of his own design, which also failed. These with the loss of a law suit over an estate he had bought in Kent, upset his already disordered brain, and he died insane in 1701, and was buried in Paddington Church, but burial not recorded due to imperfect records for that year. He left two sons and a dau. to whom he was able to bequeath an ample maintenance. The sons, eccentric as their father, shut themselves up in a large room in Picadilly, fronting Hyde Park, which he built but left unfinished with neither staircase or floors. In 1725, Vertue, the engraver, after many trials, gained an entrance during the owners absence, and among other curiosities, was shown a bar of iron thicker than a man's wrist, which it was alleged, had been broken by one of his many inventions. (Redgraves Dictionary of Artists, 1878, p. 65).

*1540, 2746-2751. James and the sextuplets, abstracted: Rochester, N.Y. July 9. 1948, by Arch Merrill, written for Gannett News Service. This unusual western New York lady is Mrs. Alincia Bushnell Parker, who for the past 45 years has lived on the shore of Silver Lake near the famous old Methodist assembly grounds.

She jealously guards a document dated "Chicago, Sept. 15, 1866, signed by James Edwards, attending physician, and Miss Pissala Bencroft, midwife and nurse . . . "This is to certify that Mrs. Jennie A. Bushnell, wife of J. L. Bushnell in the city of Chicago on the 8th day of Sept. 1866, gave birth to six living children, three girls and three boys."

The boys were named Alberto, Norberto and Loberto, and the girls, Lucy, Alice and Alincia.

Loberto died in Chicago at the age of seven months and Lucy a month later. But the four others lived on into the 20th century.

Norberto died in Buffalo in 1905; Alberto was 74 when he died in Albion in 1940 and Alice Bushnell Hughes passed away in Arizona only two years ago.

Her father was a book-keeper and, when the children were young came east and worked in Buffalo, Rochester, Lockport and Albion. In the two latter places he was employed by quarrying interests when that industry was at its peak along the Erie Canal.

The mother was a French woman and a former actress. James Bushnell had met and wooed Jennie le Charlton in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Parker has a dimming memory of her girlhood in the Lockport area, of the great canal locks and a white horse she rode. A half century ago she married Daniel Parker and they went to live at Silver Lake near the assembly grounds which in those days was another Chautauqua.

The Parkers had a little store and sold newspapers and other goods to the cottagers and the hundreds of others who came summers to the pretty little lake among the green hills.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Parker continued to live in a year around cottage near the Silver Lake Postoffice.

For 35 years she walked every working day to and from her job in the Perry Knitting Mills. . . . The sprightly woman is known to the countryside as "Lincha" Parker, and is a familiar and well liked figure.
